

MACEDONIAN
CENTER FOR INTERNATIONAL COOPERATION

c n v o s
Centre for Information Service,
Co-operation and Development of NGOs

Knowledge-sharing event with presentation of good practices from Slovenian civil society sector with a focus on CSOs transparency practices

Can transparency really help us?
CSOs approaches to greater transparency

November 6th (Friday), 2020 from 11:00 to 12:30 o'clock
Zoom platform (please register)

Agenda

- 10:50-11:00 Sign in on zoom link
- 11:00-11:15 Welcome and introductory remarks
Irena Ivanova, Task manager at the Delegation of the European Union
Aleksandra Savevska, Project officer at MCIC
- 11:15-12:15 Transparency as a transformative force in the creation of more open, effective and accountable civil society.

Presentation of four good practices from Slovenia:

- Tina Divljak, Head of advocacy at the Center for information service, cooperation and development of NGOs in Slovenia (CNVOS)
- Peter Tomazic, Secretary General at Caritas Slovenia
- Natasa Posel, Director at Amnesty International Slovenia
- Jaka Kranjc, Secretary General Ecologist without borders

The panelist will discuss the different systems they have in place for providing transparency for their constituencies, beneficiaries and the donors. They will touch upon the topic of what works and produce greater legitimacy for the sector and what are the challenges. And more, like: transparency of fundraisings and efficiency of fundraising; reporting about public campaigns outcomes; efficiency of employees and donations, and etc.

- 12:15-12:30 Questions and discussion

* Working languages are English and Macedonian. Simultaneous translation will be provided accordingly.

Support to Civil Society Organisations under the Civil Society Facility Action 2016-2017
IPA Civil Society Facility and Media Programme

Programme Going the distance: Building shared commitments for CSOs sustainability
Funded by the European Union
Contract no. IPA/2017/393-196

